

WOMAN IN BAD CONDITION

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Montpelier, Vt.—"We have great faith in your remedies. I was very irregular and was tired and sleepy all the time, would have cold chills, and my hands and feet would be cold. My stomach bothered me, I had pain in my side and a bad headache most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me what no other remedy has. I am regular, my stomach is better, and my pain has all left me. You can use my name if you like. I am proud of what your remedies have done for me."

—Mrs. Mary GAUTHIER, 81 Ridge St., Montpelier, Vt.

An Honest, Dependable Medicine
It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for nearly forty years, and to-day hold a record for thousands upon thousands of cured cases, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtues and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Incorporated) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

"Miss Daisy" Is a Very Tender Theatrical Plant

BY CHARLES DARTON.

"Miss Daisy" had arrived in the spring she might have been prepared for her, for then she could have been buried beneath her name-sakes. But now—well, we are very busy going to plays, good, bad and indifferent, and daisies are out of season.

"Miss Daisy" is another of those tender plants cultivated by Philip Bartholomae, whose aim, apparently, is to be the Burbank of the stage. He sprouts little things and expects us to sit back and exclaim "Youth can do no wrong!" But, oh yes, it can! It can make us feel very, very old, and very, very tired. He may have his adolescent dreams, but they do not always come true. With or without music, Mr. Bartholomae is not fooling.

If there is any sympathy to be wasted at the Shubert Theatre it should go to Silvio Hain, who bravely conducts his music with failure either staring him in the face or hitting him in the small of the back. But even Mr. Hain, with his pretty airs, has nothing to gain from a public that keeps its ear to Broadway, for he has not succeeded in adding freshness to the charm of his tunes.

As for the piece generally, it is like a juvenile house party that the neighbors couldn't possibly enjoy. Various young people sing and dance about in childish fashion until the mind reels and falls asleep. The morning after the ball reveals a simple maiden in bed, where she dreams of a "dick" with musical accompaniment. May shower-bath is near and yet so far, and in the interests of propriety, perhaps, she keeps out of it. "Miss Daisy" is filled with disappointments. Why do performers come up out of the orchestra pit when they have such a good hiding-place?

Allice Hegeman is the only member of the cast worth mentioning. Perhaps, the only one who got her in one of those weak moments she talks about. In its distribution of arms and legs, Nature has stretched a point in her case, and she is not ungrateful. But with all her beauty, she cannot turn "Miss Daisy" into a "Pink Lady."

To say anything more about the silly affair at the Shubert Theatre would be a waste of space, for unless all the familiar signs that "Miss Daisy" will be slipped by an early frost.

under the title of "Marie Claire." Hammerich Kalman, the Hungarian composer of "Bert," has composed an opera called "Miss Rabbit Foot" for this firm. Hall Caine is finishing his opera called "The Woman Thou Gavest Me," which will be offered on an elaborate scale after the holidays. Ada Smith's version of Eugene Brieux's "La Robe Rouge" will be presented as "The Judge's Robe."

In association with Henry Miller the managers will offer Ruth Chatterton in "Daddy Long Legs" here shortly. They will also be interested with Mr. Miller in Chauncey Olcott's season in "The Heart of Paddy Whack."

NOTES OF THE THEATRES.

Kitty Gordon will make her first appearance in "The Pink Nightgown" (meaning a comedy) Monday night at the Majestic Theatre, Chicago. This will be Miss Gordon's first role outside of musical comedy.

Two plays that will be seen here next week were acted out of town last night. In Long Branch William A. Brady presented "The Elder Son," which will come to his Playhouse Tuesday night. "Pretty Mrs. Smith," with which the Casino will reopen Monday night, was given in Albany. The mid-week matinee of "Thea Prigal Husband" will begin next week at the Empire.

Members of "The Dummies" company, who have been playing at the Hudson all summer, will have their first vacation next Saturday afternoon, when their places will be taken for one performance by members of the company that is to take the detective comedy on tour.

After an absence of nineteen years from Broadway, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thumb, F. T. Barnum's famous mid-gets, will appear the week of Sept. 28 at Hammerstein's Victoria. Mrs. Thumb is seventy-three years old.

The opening performance of "A Modern Girl," a comedy by Marion Fairfax and Ruth Mitchell, will take place to-morrow night at the Comedy Theatre.

Kathleen McDonald, Leonore Harris and Mrs. Stuart Robson have been engaged for the William A. Brady production of Thompson Buchanan's new melodrama, "Life."

Such Valuable Timber Destroyed—Wind Saves Buildings.
Fire is raging in the woods about a mile north of East Quogue, L. I.

It started soon after noon yesterday and has covered a large area. Much valuable woodland was destroyed and a number of buildings threatened before the fire was turned from its course by a shift of the wind.

The flames were fought by a number of persons. Dry weather and a probability that locomotive sparks fell into the woods led, it is believed, to the starting of the blaze.

For 25 cents you can make your hair lustrous, fluffy, and abundant.

Immediate!—Yes! Certain!—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

BUSINESS MAN PRAISES NEW STOMACH REMEDY

Much Talked-of Var-ne-sis Proves Valuable Find for New York Man.

Another report of a very interesting recovery from chronic stomach trouble was reported by Mr. Charles H. Remer of 554 West 42nd St., New York City.

Mr. Remer said: "I was troubled with a bad stomach for quite awhile, gas formed, I was distressed after meals, had no appetite, lost strength and weight and was unable to sleep on account of my nervous condition. My liver also gave me considerable trouble. In fact I was completely run down and discouraged. Reading so much about this Var-ne-sis, I decided to try it, and I am glad I did for I feel like a new man after taking the remedy a few weeks. I can now eat what I want to, sleep well, all my symptoms have entirely disappeared and I certainly appreciate what this

Advice on Beauty

by Claire Ainsworth

NOTE—If the reader does not find the information wanted in the questions answered below, just address a letter to Miss Claire Ainsworth, 48 Patterson Bldg., Darton, Ohio, inclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope, and she will gladly advise on health and beauty problems. The articles and preparations mentioned are on sale by all wholesale druggists, large retail and department stores; or any accommodating dealer can obtain them for you.

Answer: Extremely bad cases of dandruff always yield to the regular application of plain yellow methyl (sold in 4-oz. jars). Apply about twice a week. Shampoo once a week with glycerol shampoo. Also get the hair and scalp tonic recommended to "Mrs. B. C." in these answers.

Miss G. asks: "I am a poor, little little of a creature, weighing only 55 pounds. I should weigh about 130 pounds. I have tried all sorts of dieting to increase my weight. Can you recommend something to do?"

Answer: I feel very sorry for you, my little friend, and am sure I can help you out of your misery and make you a plump, healthy, and happy creature. Take a warm bath daily and then rub the body with medicated vasoline par directions contained in the package. Also begin at once taking 3-grain hypo-phosphoric tablets, recommended widely by physicians as the best flesh-making medicine known. It will take time to do it, but it is sure to give you the effort, for you will be adding to your beauty and attractiveness each day that you use the treatment. Angles and bones become invisible and beautiful curves replace them.

Miss J. asks: "Can you tell me why, in spite of all the care I take of my skin, that it is frequently a mass of pimples and blackheads, and it seems to get more and more so every day?"

Answer: Probably your digestion is not perfect and your blood has become impure. Quit eating fat and rich pastries. Bathe the body daily. Follow the treatment outlined above for "Mrs. Alice M." In addition I want you to begin taking for your bad blood condition 1-grain tablets of quinine, which will purify the blood and they have a specific whitening and clearing action on the skin. Every one who values a pretty, clear skin should take quinine at the first appearance of any pimples, redness or sallowness.

L. C. R. asks: "I am terribly distressed and have no bust development at all. How should I overcome this unsatisfactory condition?"

Answer: There is a rare cream called "Medicated vasoline," sold in sealed tins, inexpensive, easy to use and absolutely reliable. Begin its use as per directions which accompany it, and I know you will soon write me a letter of thanks and gratitude.

Stella M. asks: "My hair is straight, and even though I curl it daily it does not last. What is good to keep the hair in curl?"

Answer: Glycerol wavelets is the one reliable preparation that I know of. It is harmless, invisible and is used by thousands. It is used also to make "spit curls," which are "set" for the hair.

Miss Cecilia asks: "Please advise a beneficial shampoo for the hair, and also tell me of a good face powder, and how to massage?"

Answer: I advise the glycerol liquid shampoo and the glycerol face powder, which comes in white, pink and orange. Send two stamps for my book, "Beauty Truths," which gives much valuable advice on all beauty subjects. —Adv.

IT MAKES LITTLE DIFFERENCE WHAT YOU NEED, A WORLD "WANT" AD. WILL GO AND GET IT.
